Happy Deepavali

Dear Parents,

We are delighted to gradually welcome back all our children to Yorkland as now we are allowed to operate with full capacity! Parents have shared with us that their children have been enthusiastically seeking to understand when they can return back.

It is a real joy to watch all the children returning to class happily and cheerfully. They have lots of things to catch up with each other, filled with nonstop chatting and laughing sounds blessing our Yorkland's air.

Please do be informed that our online class will end this month. To recap, over MCO 3.0 we have conducted approximately 90 days of online sessions, equivalent to almost three and half month's sessions here various craft making, poem reciting, singing and even virtual festival celebration.

Although on one hand, it does sound overwhelming yet all our hard work is paid off when the children eagerly log on and waits up for us to conduct the classes daily, with a big smile. Undeniably, the parent played a big role encouraging their children throughout the sessions. Although it is a virtual, yet it has left a wonderful imprint of memories for all our children during Covid-19 pandemic. We do hope they would be able to recall and rejoice all these happy days.

Deepavali

Deepavali is just around the corner. Our display corner is now beautifully decorated with gold embroidered sarees, colourful bangles, peacock feathers and pots. The festival would be celebrated on 2nd November where a special treat consisting of Indian cookies "muruku" made by Aunty Anny and Deepavali lunch. Followed by Deepavali story narration by the teachers.

We would like to encourage our children to come in, dressed up in traditional Deepavali costume as it would help spread the festive mood around. You may kindly approach any of the teachers if you don't have one, as we have prepared several traditional clothing at Yorkland.

Graduation

Month of October is a busy bee month for our 6 children [Gerald, Han Wei, Jaydenz, Naomi, Venice and Wen Chen] as they are graduating in November. They are eager to perform what they have watched the big children done last year. Sprightly, their nimble fingers worked on and completed their musical instruments for the graduation presentation under the loving guidance of their teachers.

Please take note that we have postponed the Graduation ceremony to a new date: 26th November 2021 [Friday] from 12th November 2021 [Friday], as this would provide more practising time for both big and small children as a whole. We do apologize for any inconvenience caused.

Hereby, we are inviting only parents of the graduating children to join us on this day. Enclosing the day's programme and song sheet for your kind attention.

1] 我是一颗小种子
落在一片青草地
爸爸就像大太阳
给我满满的力量
妈妈就像小雨水
不断滋养我长大

2] 我是一棵小树苗
来到一个小乐园
朋友就像彩虹般
相亲相爱乐融融
红橙黄绿蓝靛紫
歌声幽幽永不止
老师就像和风吹
吹走伤心的眼泪
吹来欢乐的笑声

3] 我是强壮的小树
风吹雨打都不怕
小鸟蝴蝶来我家
我便伸手帮助它
我要张开我双手
迎接更多的朋友
一天一天的长大
努力向上不害怕

4] 感谢爸爸和妈妈
细心呵护我长大
让我勇敢不害怕
感谢老师和朋友
天天陪伴我左右
让我勇敢向前走

Yorkland Garden Grown Stories

It's been two years since Yorkland Garden sow the grapevine yet it only produced foliage and rather minimal fruits. But wow, this year it begin to bear more grapes for real! On a real sunny day, we began to gather the grapes with the kids, it was rewarding to watch the children excitedly plucking out the bunches of grapes located near the stairs in our yard. Added on, it is a helpful pincer grip activity for the children.

Our homie grapes were much sour and not as sweet as those we purchased from the stores. Hence, to sweeten and improvise the taste of the grapes, Aunty Anny gently removed the grape skin and seeds, soaked them over in a pot of organic honey. The children had them during their noon snack where they cutely pucker up due to the sweet and sour taste of Yorkland grapes.
