THE YORKLAND FAMILY, GROWING TOGETHER

Dear Parents,

As the excitement of Chinese New Year settles, we take a moment to reflect on the wonderful celebrations we shared. From vibrant performances to cheering moments, our festivities were filled with joy, laughter, and cultural appreciation.

Our young performers did a fantastic job bringing the spirit of the festival to life, and we could not be prouder. Here's a recap of the memorable moments from our celebration.

The children delivered a delightful Chinese New Year presentation, showcasing their enthusiasm and festive spirit. The opening dance, a joyful welcome performance accompanied by prosperity-themed words, set a wonderful tone for the event. It was a heart-warming way to begin the celebration, filling the atmosphere with excitement.

Of course, as with any performance by little ones, some children felt a bit overwhelmed by the crowd and instinctively ran back to their parents. However, we are confident that with time and experience, they will grow more comfortable on the circle and be ready to shine in future festivals.

The highlight of the performance was undoubtedly the ribbon dance. The children gracefully twirled their colourful ribbons, creating simple movements yet captivated the parents. Their effort and enthusiasm made the performance a truly memorable part of the celebration.

The 6-year-olds put on a wonderful Ribbon Dragon Dance performance, filling the space with energy and excitement. Each child played a part in bringing the performance to life; from designing and crafting their own colourful ribbon dragons to learning how to move gracefully with them. Every prop was carefully made by their little hands, showcasing their creativity and dedication.

Although they did not have rigorous practice sessions, they truly enjoyed every moment, laughing and having fun as they twirled their ribbons in the air. When it was time to perform, their enthusiasm and joy were evident, making it a heart-warming and delightful surprise for everyone watching. Their playful spirit and teamwork made the performance truly special.

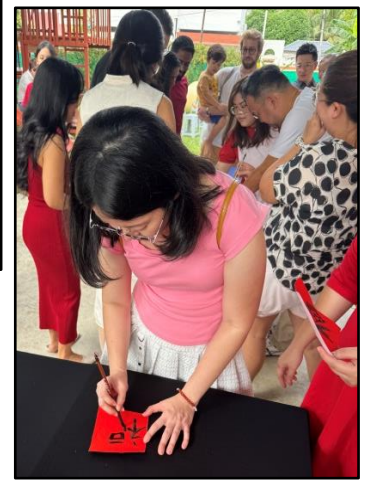

During snack time, the children and parents enjoyed a delightful spread of festive treats, including homemade cookies, mandarin oranges, and a special treat—coconut-coated “Tee Kuih”. The sweet and chewy “Tee Kuih”, covered in fragrant coconut, was a hit, adding a traditional touch to our celebration. It was a delicious way to embrace the flavours of Chinese New Year.

We are delighted to share that our recent cultural session on calligraphy was a resounding success. Led by professional instructor Mr. Loh, the event saw enthusiastic participation from all parents, regardless of their prior experience with calligraphy. It was heartening to witness everyone embracing the art form, and we were particularly impressed by the innate talent displayed by some participants. The dedication and creativity shown in mastering the calligraphy strokes made the session both enjoyable and enriching for all involved.

Many of you have adorned your homes by displaying your calligraphy masterpieces at your entrances to welcome guests, while others have taken the extra step of framing these artworks, elevating them to the next level. Your dedication not only showcases your artistic talents but also reinforces the cultural values we cherish.

Thank you for your wholehearted participation and for making our Yorkland community so enriching.

To wrap up our festive celebrations, the children had a blast playing with pops in the garden just before heading home. The sound of cheerful giggles and excited popping filled the air, making it the perfect way to end the event on a high note.

Before leaving, each child received a special goodie bag filled with Chinese New Year treats—delicious cookies, a festive craft, a pair of lucky orange, 'angpow', and, of course, extra pops to continue the fun at home. It was a wonderful way to send everyone off with happy hearts and festive cheer!

To mark the joyous occasion of Chap Goh Mei, we invited a professional Lion Dance troupe to perform for the children. Knowing that the loud drums and big, bouncing lions could be a little intimidating, we kindly asked the performers to be extra gentle with our little audience. Who knew a "ferocious" lion could be so friendly and guess what? Not a single child cried!

It turns out our lions were less "roar" and more "aww"!

The cheeky lion dance playfully tapped on the piano!

HARI RAYA

We are excited to celebrate Hari Raya with the children at Yorkland!
On 14th March we will be having a special celebration where the children will get to enjoy some traditional Malay snacks and a delicious Nasi Lemak lunch.

If your child has Malay traditional clothes, we would love for them to wear them on this day. However, this is completely optional and please feel free to dress them in regular attire if they do not have any.

Looking forward to a wonderful celebration together with children.

Hari Raya song

*Selamat Hari Raya, kepada saudara serta saudari
Setahun hanya sekali, merayakan hari yang mulia ini.*
